All regular user accounts reside in an organisational unit (OU) named Employees.

All administrator accounts reside in an OU named Admins.

You need to ensure that any time an administrator modifies an employee's name in AD DS, the change is audited.

What should you do first?

- A. Use the Auditpol.exe command-line tool to enable the directory service changes auditing subcategory.
- B. Create a Group Policy Object with the Audit directory service access setting enabled and link it to the Employees OU.
- C. Modify the searchFlags property for the Name attribute in the Schema.
- D. Create a Group Policy Object with the Audit directory service access setting enabled and link it to the Admins OU.

Auditing changes to objects in AD DS

In Windows 2000 Server and Windows Server 2003, there was one audit policy, Audit directory service access, that controlled whether auditing for directory service events was enabled or disabled. In Windows Server 2008, this policy is divided into four subcategories:

- Directory Service Access
- Directory Service Changes

-Directory Service Replication

-Detailed Directory Service Replication

The ability to audit changes to objects in AD DS is enabled with the new audit policy subcategory Directory Service Changes. This guide provides instructions for implementing this audit policy subcategory.

The types of changes that you can audit include a user (or any security principal) creating, modifying, moving, or undeleting an object. The new audit policy subcategory adds the following capabilities to auditing in AD DS:

-When a successful modify operation is performed on an attribute, AD DS logs the previous and current values of the attribute. If the attribute has more than one value, only the values that change as a result of the modify operation are logged.

Steps to set up auditing

This section includes procedures for each of the primary steps for enabling change auditing:

-Step 1: Enable audit policy.

-Step 2: Set up auditing in object SACLs by using Active Directory Users and Computers.

Step 1: Enable audit policy.

This step includes procedures to enable change auditing with either the Windows interface or a command line:

-(...)

-By using the Auditpol command-line tool, you can enable individual subcategories.

To enable the change auditing policy using a command line

1. Click Start, right-click Command Prompt, and then click Run as administrator.

2. Type the following command, and then press ENTER:

auditpol /set /subcategory:"directory service changes" /success:enable

NEW QUESTION: 3

A. Snap mirror resync

B. Options snapmirror.access on

C. Options snapmirror.resync on

D. Snapmirror initialize

Answer: A,D

Explanation:

https://library.netapp.com/ecmdocs/ECMP1196979/html/man1/na_snapmirror.1.html

snapmirror initialize [-S source] [-k kilobytes] [-s src_snap] [-c create_dest_snap] [-w] destination Starts an initial transfer over the network. An initial transfer is required before update transfers can take place.

The initialize command must be issued on the destination node. If the destination is a volume, it must be restricted (see na_vol(1) for information on how to examine and restrict volumes). If the destination is a qtree, it must not already exist (see na_qtree(1) for information on how to list qtrees). If a qtree already exists, it must be renamed or removed (using an NFS or CIFS client), or snapmirror initialize to that qtree will not work.

snapmirror resync [-n] [-f] [-S source] [-k kilobytes] [-s src_snap] [-c create_dest_snap] [-w] destination Resynchronizes a broken-off destination to its former source, putting the destination in the snapmirrored state and making it ready for update transfers.

The resync command must be issued on the destination node.
